COULD MAY GIVE COVEY A RETURN MATCH

JAY GOULD (ABOVE) AND GEORGE COVEY (BELOW). There is talk of Jay Gould, the athletic young son of George Gould, who recently won the world's open golf championship by defeating George Covey, the English professional champion, in five out of six games, giving Covey a chance to redeem himself. Covey is said to have requested Mr. Gould to make a trip to England in the fall for a return match. There is a possibility of Mr. Gould accepting the invitation.

Palace Duckpin Tournament

Three Classes—A, B and C.
Now that most all of the large maple tournaments are over, the management of the Palace Alleys will run a duckpin tournament, beginning April 10 and running until April 21.

The tournament will be conducted the same way as the large maple tournaments were, with three classes. Class A means an average of 95 and over; Class B means an average of 85 to 94; Class C means an average of 85 and under.

The entries close midnight, April 6. Entry fee will be $1 for each event entered. For all information and entry blanks, see or call Manager R. N. Rowsey or C. L. Cosby, of the Palace Alleys.

Duckpin League to Open.
The Palace Duckpin League will begin Wednesday night at 8:30 o'clock, when the Palace and Journal teams will start the remaining half of the schedule. The league games were postponed on account of the intercity tourney.

FRANK WILL NOT HANG ON APRIL 17

Contemplated Legal Manoeuvres by Counsel Will Cause Delay of Execution.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Atlanta, March 28.—Leo Frank will not be hanged on April 17, the date set by Judge Ben Hill. This became virtually certain through the disclosure of contemplated legal manoeuvres by Frank's counsel.

In the event that Judge Hill acts unfavorably on the extraordinary motion for a new trial, and refuses even to hear argument, as he may do in an extraordinary motion, and follows the action by denying the defendant a bill of exceptions, the judge may be intimidated by Frank's attorneys, and the case thereby carried for the second time to the Supreme Court of Georgia.

What the action of the defense will be in the event that the Supreme Court again denies their appeal has not been decided, but it is known that the last recourse even then will not be exhausted.

Interest in the case centred in the announcement that William J. Burns is expected to return within the next day or two from New York, where certain phases of his probe led him a few days ago.

The extraordinary motion for a new trial for Frank, served on the solicitor on Friday by attorneys for the condemned man, can be amended at any time before it is heard, and as a result any new evidence Burns may discover will be included. Dan S. Lehon, who has been conducting the investigation in the absence of Burns, declares new evidence is being discovered every day, and as a result a lengthy amendment to the extraordinary motion will probably be made before the date of the hearing.

Solicitor-General Hugh M. Dorsey left the city for Valdosta on Friday evening without making any comment on the extraordinary motion.

Many of the points made in the extraordinary motion have been known to the solicitor for some time, and he has already collected evidence with which to combat them when the motion is heard before Judge Ben H. Hill.

Before he left for Valdosta the so-

Solicitor is said to have instructed the city detectives to take up a detailed investigation of the stories of the various witnesses, new and old, who are quoted in the extraordinary motion.

The solicitor has the right, it is said, to demand a hearing of the motion before April 16, the day on which it will be formally filed with the court, and a hearing before Judge Hill commenced. However, the solicitor refuses positively to discuss the case in any of its ramifications, no definite information as to his attitude on this point can be secured.

READS NOVELS IN PRISON

Mme. Caillaux Appears to Take No Interest in Her Own Plight.
[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.]
Paris, March 28.—While members of the special committee of the Chamber of Deputies were engaged in a stormy debate today as to whether or not Premier Monis, and the former Minister of Finance, Joseph Caillaux, should be censured for the connection with the Rochette affair, and the Cabinet council was discussing the delicate political situation brought about by the Rochette affair and the shooting of Gaston Calmette by Mme. Caillaux, the accused woman spent the time reading novels in her luxurious suite in St. Lazare prison.

"I am very tired and need repose," she said to one of the nurses.

She did not appear to take any special interest in her own plight, or the political crisis precipitated by her rash act.

The session of the investigating committee ended with Deputy Jules Delaunay leaving the room in a rage, and slamming the door behind him. It is believed he will resign from the committee. The members are still divided on the question of censuring Monis and Caillaux for the connection with the postponement of the trial of the man who defrauded the French people out of many millions of francs.

DEMAND OF MILITANTS.

London Suffragettes Assert Right to Meet in Hyde Park.
London, March 28.—The militant suffragettes of London today claimed the right to hold demonstrations in Hyde Park, basing their claims on the official permission given to Ulster sympathizers to hold meetings there April 4.

The Women's Social and Political Union notified the commissioner of works: "There can be no objection to the suffragettes holding a meeting in Hyde Park, since the advocates of a policy of violence and bloodshed in Ulster have been granted permission to do so. The militant society has therefore announced its purpose to make a demonstration simultaneously with that of the supporters of the Ulster Orangemen."

WILL FINISH FATHER'S BOOKS.

Miss Briggs Also Expected to Write Biography of Late Theologian.
New York, March 28.—Miss Emilia Grace Briggs, already known as an author, linguist, musician and Bible lecturer, has begun the work of completing the unfinished theological works of her father, Professor Charles A. Briggs, of Union Theological Seminary, who died almost a year ago. When that task is finished she expects to write the biography of her father, who was tried for heresy by the Presbyterian Church, suspended and later received and ordained by the Protestant Episcopal Church.

For several years Miss Briggs collaborated with her father in his theological works, so that it will be possible for her to go on with his unfinished manuscripts. She holds a degree in bachelor of divinity from Union Seminary, being the first woman to be graduated from that institution.

Y. M. C. A. BUILDING BURNS.

Twenty Men Have Narrow Escape From Death at Alton, Ill.
St. Louis, March 28.—Twenty men were routed from their beds and had narrow escapes when fire destroyed the Young Men's Christian Association Building at Alton, Ill., near here, early today. The men were asleep on the upper floors of the building, which was a four-story structure, and escaped by climbing down ladders and fire escapes. With half the fire department fighting another blaze in the north end of the town, the fire soon got beyond control and destroyed the Young Men's Christian Association Building, entailing a loss estimated at $75,000. No one was injured.

SUIT FOR VALUE OF RING

Action Against Bonding Company Revoked Theft Committed Last May.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Greenwich, Conn., March 28.—A remarkable theft of a $5,000 marquise diamond solitaire ring, set in platinum, from the person of Mrs. Thomas St. Hodgins, of New York, between the hours of 4 and 5 o'clock on the morning of May 10 last, was brought to light for the first time today by filing of a suit in the Superior Court. Mr. Hodgins and his wife,inez, are suing the American Bonding Company, of Baltimore for $5,000 for burglary insurance. The case will be tried on April 7.

The complaint sets forth that by reason of a burglary, theft or larceny, the bonding company is responsible. The ring is valued at $5,000. The Hodgins live in their luxurious home at Indian Field here.

Mrs. Hodgins said to-night: "I gave a house party on the night of May 9, and it was 4 o'clock in the morning when my husband noticed the ring on my finger. At that time all of the guests, with the exception of two of my most intimate friends, had retired. I do not suspect any of the guests, and do not know how I lost the ring. Possibly it slipped off my finger when I awoke. When I awoke I could not find it. I notified the insurance company, and upon their advice I did not tell the local authorities. They had detectives here and did not find the ring."
